BAPTIST CHURCH

Second Sunday of Easter

Preparing for worship

*What has been before will continue to be,
and what has been done before will continue to be done —
there's nothing new under the sun!*
—Ecclesiastes 1:9

Sometimes we feel just like the writer of Ecclesiastes. We get stuck in our daily routine. Everything seems predictable, safe, perhaps a little dull. “So what else is new?” we say. We become oblivious to the possibility of change, of experiencing something a little different. Our comfort level is perfectly stable.

Well, every now and then something happens to shake us out of our complacency. What could be more dramatic than the sun’s light being extinguished in the middle of the day? Yet that is what we are expecting to experience during tomorrow’s solar eclipse.

It is as if God were trying to get our attention. As the psalmist writes, “The heavens herald your glory, O God, and the skies display your handiwork” (Psalm 19:1). “Wake up,” God is telling us. “Look around you, and sense my presence.”

It may be hard to imagine anything topping this celestial display in terms of proclaiming something new under the sun. Yet, just last Sunday our church celebrated the most astounding manifestation of God’s greatness imaginable: as the youth described in Mark’s Gospel proclaimed, “He has risen; he is not here” (Mark 16:6).

This Jesus, the Christ, was God made flesh, who lived among us, and whose death and resurrection established a new relationship between us and God.

As the apostle Paul writes, “So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!” (2 Corinthians 5:17, NRSV) This is “something new” that we can indeed celebrate.

Chiming of the Hour

We gather in community this morning to worship God.

O God, you have brought us into this new day. A day of Easter rejoicing! A day to sing your praises. A day to pray for one another. Lord, as we worship you, may your love overflow from our hearts with beautiful sounds as we sing you an everlasting song of praise.

+All congregants who are able are invited to stand.
Hearing devices are available in the Narthex and South Atrium.

See how good, how pleasant it is for God's people to live together as one! It is like precious oil on Aaron's head running down on his beard, running down to the collar of his robes. It is like the dew of Mount Hermon, falling on the hills of Zion. For that is where YHWH bestows the blessing — life that never ends.

Choral Offertory

How Great Thou Art
New Song Community Choir
Sarah Stafford, director
Crysta Jones, piano

arr. Lloyd Larson

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee: How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee: How great thou art! How great thou art!

When through the woods and forest glades I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees, when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur, and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze.

And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, sent him to die, I scarce can take it in, that on the cross, my burden gladly bearing, he bled and died to take away my sin.

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration, and there proclaim, "My God, how great thou art!"

Prayers of the People

Timothy Peoples

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins,
As we forgive those who sin against us;
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

Passing of the Bread

The Lone, Wild Bird

arr. Wilbur Held

The lone, wild bird in lofty flight
Is still with thee, nor leaves thy sight.
And I am thine! I rest in thee.
Great Spirit, come, and rest in me.

The ends of earth are in thy hand,
The sea's dark deep and far off land.
And I am thine! I rest in thee.
Great Spirit, come, and rest in me. Amen.

+Epistle Reading — 1 John 1:1–2:2

Emily Reavis

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, and seen with our eyes, and have looked at and touched with our hands: the Word, who is Life — this is the subject of our letter. That life came to be; we saw it and bear witness to it. We proclaim to you the eternal life which was with Abba God and was manifested to us. What we have seen and heard we declare to you, so that you may be one with us — as we are one with Abba God and with the Only Begotten, Jesus Christ. We write this to fulfill our joy. This, then, is the message we heard from Jesus and declare to you: God is light, and in God there is no darkness at all. If we say we have intimacy with God while still living in darkness, we are liars and do not live in truth. But if we live in the light, as God is in the light, we are one with each other, and the blood of Jesus, the Only Begotten, purifies us from all sin. If we say we are without sin, we lie, and the truth is not in us. But if we admit our sins, God, the faithful and just One, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all injustice. If we say we have not sinned, we call God a liar and show that God's Word is not in us. My little ones, I am writing this to keep you from sin. But if anyone should sin, we have an Advocate with God — Jesus Christ, who is just. Jesus is the full payment for our sins, and not for our sins only, but for those of the whole world.

For the Word of God in Scripture,
For the Word of God among us,
And for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God!

New Bible translation in worship

If you've thought Scripture readings in worship have seemed a little different lately, you're not wrong. Wilshire's worship planning team has adopted The Inclusive Bible: The First Egalitarian Translation, published in 2007 by Priests for Equality, an independent group of clergy and laity. The translation's publisher writes: "While this new Bible is certainly an inclusive-language translation, it is much more: it is a re-imagining of the scriptures and our relationship to them. Not merely replacing male pronouns, the translators have rethought what kind of language has built barriers between the text and its readers. Seeking to be faithful to the original languages, they have sought new and non-sexist ways to express the same ancient truths. The Inclusive Bible is a fresh, dynamic translation into modern English, carefully crafted to let the power and poetry of the language shine forth — particularly when read aloud."

Merik Gillett leaving Wilshire staff

Operations Director Merik Gillett is leaving Wilshire's staff to take a position at UT Southwestern Medical Center. Merik began working at Wilshire in June 2022. Executive Director of Administration Geri McKenzie said, "We appreciate the knowledge and expertise that Merik brought to his work of keeping our facilities functioning and in good shape. Our building presents some particular challenges, and Merik never hesitated to roll up his sleeves and tackle any problem that presented itself." The Personnel Committee will work with staff to determine the best way forward in staffing the maintenance and building operations areas.

Wilshire to join in gun violence advocacy project

In 2023, Wilshire advocacy partner Texas Impact launched Vidas Robadas (Stolen Lives), a project to reduce gun violence by memorializing its victims through public installations. By displaying T-shirts that name or represent victims in Dallas County, the effort will honor the individuals and make visible the reality of gun violence in our community.

On Sunday, April 28, the Christian Advocacy Committee will host a T-shirt-making event after worship in Community Hall. Sunday School classes may choose to participate during class. Each colored shirt will show the name, age and death date of someone who died of gun violence in the last five years. Each white shirt will represent a suicide and show a crisis hotline number.

Prior to their installation at Wilshire in late May, our 200 shirts will be displayed alongside those from other churches outside the National Rifle Association convention in Dallas on May 18.

The Christian Advocacy Committee and Wilshire's deacons have wholeheartedly agreed for Wilshire to participate in Stolen Lives. The T-shirts we make will be installed along the brick wall north of the church building on Abrams Road. Many other faith communities are joining Texas Impact in this effort, which will culminate next February with a display of all shirts at the state capitol on Gun Violence Reduction Advocacy Day.

We hope you'll make plans to join us on April 28 for this impactful and moving project. Contact Associate Pastor Heather Mustain to learn more (hmustain@wilshirebc.org).

Hometown: Dallas

Present City: Dallas

Education: B.S. in education, Baylor University

Profession: IT Engineer at GuideStone Financial Resources (formerly the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention)

Tell us about your family.

My husband, Mike, and I have been married over 27 years. Our family has consisted of various cats, all adopted, over the years. My sister Sherry and her husband, Pat Hicks, are also Wilshire members. Our parents, Neal and Shirley Sanders, were longtime members of Wilshire as well.

What brought you to Wilshire and when?

My original arrival was via the cradle roll. I returned after college but lost my way for a bit after my mother passed. My last return, this time with my husband, was in 2006. My main reason for returning? I very much missed singing in a high-quality community of faith choir.

Where are you engaged at Wilshire?

I am a newly ordained deacon. I am also part of Sanctuary Choir, Nova, Carillon Ringers and chair the Building and Grounds Committee this year. I am part of Faith in 3D. Mike and I volunteer in the church office every Sunday morning during Sunday School.

What has surprised you most about Wilshire?

Its resiliency. There have been so many changes in less than 10 years, yet the spirit of Wilshire continues to thrive. We are embracing changes and allowing God to be the Master Artisan with us being the clay.

What do you think God is up to in your life right now?

God has been stretching me, urging me into new roles at Wilshire since 2017. I know there is more to come because I actively ask God to show me where I can be used. Gone are the days where I could just sit idle and watch from the choir loft.

Tell us about your faith journey.

I gave my life to Christ at age 8 and was baptized at Wilshire by Bruce McIver. In the last few years, God has intertwined my life with people I consider strong Christians with strengths and spiritual gifts that I can see and learn from — for a time. Then God gently moves them back a bit and puts others into my life, and then new opportunities to grow continue. I know God is not finished with me and still has more expectations of me.

Tell us something interesting most people would not know about you.

Back in the 1980s I worked for Wilshire member Bob Harty writing business stories for The Shopping News.

What adjectives best describe you?

Positivity.
