SEDONA'S RED ROCK COUNTRY & THE GRAND CANYON

SEPT. 28-OCT. 4, 2025

the ADVENTURERS
Wilshire Baptist Church

An Exclusive Learning Adventure from Road Scholar

Program Summary:

The Colorado Plateau in Arizona claims two of North America's most beautiful canyons. Explore the geology, ecology and human heritage of these spectacular canyon landscapes: Sedona's Oak Creek Canyon and the incomparable Grand Canyon. In Sedona, enjoy a spectacular "Pink" Jeep trip into its stunning red-rock back country, exploring vistas seldom seen by visitors. Overnight in Grand Canyon National Park while soaking in the breathtaking panorama of this world heritage site. Travel an epic road to the bottom of the Grand Canyon, through its multiplicity of layered rock and time, with the reward of a picnic on the banks of the mighty Colorado River.

Program Highlights:

- Visit Montezuma Castle National Monument, a five-story cliff dwelling of the prehistoric Sinagua people.
- Go off the beaten path on the Hualapai Indian Reservation on old Route 66 and in Sedona on a Pink Jeep adventure.
- Explore the Grand Canyon South Rim's dramatic viewpoints and trails with regional experts.

Program Only Prices:

- Double Occupancy: $2,349
