

Preparing for worship

Today we are celebrating Epiphany at Wilshire. My husband, Allan, and I are members of the Epiphany Sunday School class, a safe space at Wilshire to wrestle with questions, have differing opinions and still show love and respect for others.

What does it mean when someone says, “I had an epiphany”? According to the English-Cambridge Dictionary, this is a moment when you suddenly feel that you understand or become conscious of something very important to you, which can be a powerful religious experience. It is often an illuminating realization or discovery, an insight or an inspiration — the “aha” moment or life-changing realization that changes the rest of the story.

Matthew is the only Gospel that speaks about Epiphany and the coming of the Magi. Epiphany comes from the Greek word meaning “showing forth” or “to reveal.” It is often thought of as the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles.

The Magi followed the star because they were faithful. They went to Herod, who also wanted to know where this so-called king was. Herod was scared and called his chief priests and scribes to find out where this Messiah was to be born. They turned to the Scriptures of the prophet for an answer. I wonder how often we turn to Scripture when we need an answer.

When they got to Bethlehem, the star stopped moving and stayed above the stable where the Christ Child was. Can you imagine what a wondrous sight that was to behold? The kings knelt and paid homage to the baby. While the Magi’s motives were pure, Herod’s motives were not, because he wanted to be the only king. When the Magi left, they wisely went home a different way.

On this feast day of Epiphany, let’s look at the three kings and the important gifts they brought to the Christ Child. The first gift was gold; however, Jesus was a different kind of king, so gold isn’t enough for him. Frankincense was the second gift the kings brought to Jesus. It is often used for worship because it makes a sweet-smelling smoke that helps us when we pray. The third gift was myrrh, which is sometimes burned at funerals. It was a foreshadowing of Jesus’ death. These gifts showed that Jesus was not to be like other kings.

I wonder how we, like the kings, are faithfully following the star and God’s direction. I wonder what gifts we are bringing to Jesus. I wonder when we are like Herod with impure motives. I wonder where you will have an epiphany that will change your story.

Sing Glory to the Name of God

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

May God forever be our peace;
May hymns of glory never cease:
Alleluia, alleluia!
Let all the faithful people come;
Sing praise to God, the Three-in-One:
Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Reading from the Hebrew Scriptures — Isaiah 60:1–6

Claudia Barner

Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.
For darkness shall cover the earth and thick darkness the peoples, but the LORD will arise upon you, and God's glory will appear over you.
Nations shall come to your light and kings to the brightness of your dawn.
Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together; they come to you;
your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried in their nurses' arms.

Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you; the wealth of the nations shall come to you.
A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come.
They shall bring gold and frankincense and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

+Gospel Reading — Matthew 2:1–12

Heather Mustain

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, magi from the east came to Jerusalem, asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star in the east and have come to pay him homage.” When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him, and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet: ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah, for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.’ ” Then Herod secretly called for the magi and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.” When they had heard the king, they set out, and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen in the east, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

For the Word of God in Scripture,
For the Word of God among us,
And for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God!

I dream of a church where everyone is welcome,
I dream of a place we all can call home.
I dream of a world where justice is flowing,
With hope and peace growing, where God's will is done.

Make it so! We pray for that day, make it so.
We dream of a day where love reigns among us and your will is done,
O God, make it so!

O God, fill our hearts to reach out in welcome,
Make us to see your vision once more.
Let's dream of a world where our hands are your hands,
We offer ourselves, O God, make it so.

2024 budget surplus is $501,329

Thanks to strong year-end giving, Wilshire ended 2024 with a financial surplus of $501,329 — believed to be our largest surplus ever. Our budget for 2024 was $3,925,000, and revenue through Dec. 31 totaled $4,087,665. Meanwhile, expenses for the year came in under budget at $3,586,336.

In a Dec. 31 email to the church, Senior Pastor Timothy Peoples wrote, “Thank you so much for the ways you have shared and given to our Unified Budget. We are now able to walk into the new year on a good footing.”

Wilshire began December 2024 needing $1,012,388 to meet budgeted income and wound up receiving $1,175,053 during the month, a $166,863 increase over giving during December 2023.

In Wilshire’s Unified Budget approach, funds received over the revenue budget are applied at the discretion of the Finance Committee. More information about plans for the surplus will be shared at the Annual Church Conference on Jan. 26, as will a proposed budget for 2025.

Tell us about your family.

My husband and I have one daughter, Katie Peck, who lives in Lakewood with her husband, Sam, and sons Miller, 9, and Clark, 7. One of my joys in life is getting the call, “Hi, Mom. Can you pick up the boys today?”

How about your work or volunteer life?

I’ve been part of Stephen Ministry for years. My Sunday School class volunteered at Homeward Bound. Recently, I volunteered with Wilshire’s Rental and Utility Assistance Program as an intake interviewer. That was a powerful experience.

Favorite hobbies?

Pickleball, watercolor, biking and traveling.

What are your favorite places to travel?

I visited Japan with my sisters in a spiritual learning group and was amazed at the beautiful gardens, the history of Japan and the clean city streets in Tokyo and Kyoto.

What brought you to Wilshire and when?

Our daughter, Katie, was invited by a friend to Wilshire when she was 10 years old (29 years ago)! She went to summer camp and was embraced by the strong youth group led by Darren. Katie and Sam were married at Wilshire in 2011.

Where are you engaged at Wilshire?

Cord of Three is my Sunday School Class, and I’m one of the teachers. We study the Bible, and

I look forward to the class interaction and fellowship weekly.

What has surprised you most about Wilshire?

The open and authentic search for worshiping and learning about who God is and what our Lord is up to — and how we can engage in this world as servants of God.

What do you think God is up to in your life right now?

I tend to be a peacemaker, but I find myself more interested in the “good trouble” that would bend the needle toward a more just and equitable world.

Tell us about your faith journey.

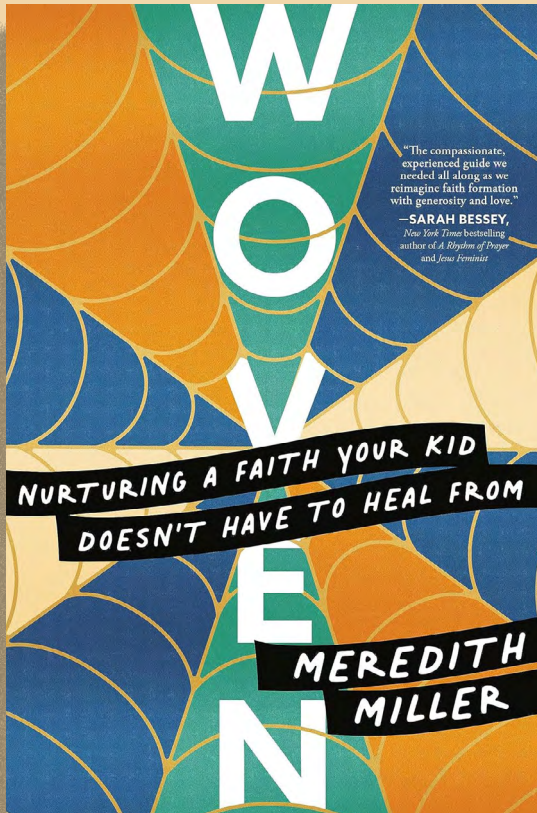

As a child I loved going to church in my hometown of Gaylord, Michigan. I have felt God’s very real presence at specific events in my life, but the most profound and significant journey was four years ago when I felt an absence of God. Even prayer was hard. I was acutely anxious and sought help. One of the many things that time of suffering revealed was a new understanding of the importance of seeking routine times of solitude with God.

What is something interesting most people would not know about you?

I wish I could sing and play the saxophone!

What adjectives best describe you?

I am an optimist.

"The compassionate, experienced guide we needed all along as we reimagine faith formation with generosity and love."
