

Wilshire
BAPTIST CHURCH

May 11, 2025
Fourth Sunday of Easter

Preparing for worship

In every faith community, there are moments when life becomes overwhelming — when grief, illness, loss or loneliness casts long shadows. It is in these sacred spaces of pain and vulnerability that Stephen Ministry offers something deeply healing: a compassionate presence. Grounded in Christ's call to love one another, Stephen Ministry equips laypeople to provide confidential, one-to-one Christian care to individuals facing life's difficulties.

Stephen Ministers are not counselors, therapists or miracle workers. They are trained listeners — people who walk alongside others with empathy, offering support without judgment or advice. Their role is to be the hands and heart of Christ in a hurting world. Often, just having someone there to pray with, talk to and cry beside is enough to help someone feel less alone.

Commissioning new Stephen Ministers is a sacred event in the life of a congregation. It is both a celebration and a commitment. During the commissioning service, these lay caregivers are formally blessed and sent forth to serve, recognizing the months of training they've completed and the spiritual weight of the work they're undertaking. It's a powerful moment when the church says, "We see your calling, and we stand with you."

Commissioning also reminds the whole church body of our shared responsibility to care. It highlights the ministry of presence — not just for those called to serve as Stephen Ministers, but for all of us as members of the body of Christ. Whether we are the ones offering care or receiving it, Stephen Ministry models how we are meant to live: in compassionate community.

Ultimately, Stephen Ministry is a quiet but profound expression of love in action. It brings light into dark places, not with grand gestures, but with consistent, Christ-centered compassion. And commissioning marks the beginning of that journey — the start of something holy.

Wilshire would not be who we are without the steady, faithful and quiet caregivers among us. Doing and being church is a communal witness to God's faithful and unending love. So let me just say how thankful the staff is for each of you who walk alongside many, compassionately serving.

+Call to Worship

Diana Early

One: We love you, Lord,

All: Because you have first loved us.

One: We love those whom we meet every day,

All: Because you have first loved us.

One: We love those who are difficult to love,

All: Because you have first loved us.

One: Because you have first loved us,

All: We feel your love and worship you, our Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer.

Litany of Commissioning of Stephen Ministers

Linda Garner

Leader: Will you assume this ministry in the confidence that it comes from God?

Stephen Ministers: Yes, with God's help.

Leader: Will you nurture the skills you have learned and use them in service to others — to support, encourage, build up, and comfort people in all their needs?

Stephen Ministers: Yes, with God's help.

Leader: Wilshire, will you open your hearts to the ministry of these people and pray for them, that they may be effective servants of Christ?

Congregation: Yes, with God's help.

Leader: Are you prepared to serve as Stephen Ministers and commit yourself to active service?

Stephen Ministers: Yes, with God's help.

Leader: Because you have promised faithfully to serve Christ and Christ's people as Stephen Ministers, I commend you each to the care and guidance of the ministry. Use your gifts and talents that you might be a blessing to the people you meet and care for.

Prayer of Blessing

Congregation: Loving God, we joyfully commission these Stephen Ministers to serve in your name. Bless them with compassion, wisdom, and attentiveness as they walk alongside those in need. Give them strength when the journey is difficult, patience when progress is slow, and humility to seek your guidance in all things. May their ministry reflect God's love and bring comfort to those who suffer. May our support and prayers encourage them as they serve this sacred calling. Together, we commit to this ministry of care, recognizing your presence in our midst. Amen.

At that time the Festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.” Jesus answered, “I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father’s name testify to me, but you do not believe because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, in regard to what he has given me, is greater than all, and no one can snatch them out of the Father’s hand. The Father and I are one.”

+Psalm Reading — Psalm 23

Matt Howell

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;
he restores my soul.
He leads me in right paths
for his name’s sake.
Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
my whole life long.

For the Word of God in Scripture,
For the Word of God among us,
And for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God!

The Lord is my Shepherd, and I shall not want.
The Lord is my Shepherd, and I shall not want for more.
How could I ask for more?

He leads by still water, and I shall not want.
He leads by still water, and I shall not want for more.
How could I ask for more?

He is enough for every need.
He is enough for every broken dream.
And I shall not want.

I'm satisfied with what he gives.
He will provide and faithfully supply.
And I shall not want.

He leads through the valley, and I shall not want.
He leads through the valley, and I shall not want.

He is the night, he is the day.
He is the sun, he is the shade.
He is the ocean, he's the stream.
In every song, he is my theme.

And if we wander off alone, his mercy calls us back to home.

I feast at his table, and I shall not want.
I feast at his table, and I shall not want for more.

He is the strength to conquer sin.
He's faithful when my trust is thin.
I shall not want.

Silence

We pause in silence to reflect and to be attentive to the Spirit of God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins,
As we forgive those who sin against us;
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

Lend your voice to hymn festival

On Sunday, May 25, Sanctuary Choir will share a special all-music hymn festival, O God, Our Help!, during morning worship. We're revisiting beloved anthems and preparing beautiful hymn arrangements to inspire our congregation. This will be perfect for those with choral experience to participate without a long-term commitment. There will be two rehearsals:

■ Sunday, May 18, 9:15–9:45 a.m.

■ Sunday, May 25, 9:15–9:45 a.m. (Final preparation before 11 a.m. worship.)

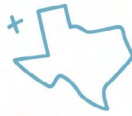

There's no audition — just bring your love of sacred music. Your voice matters, and this special Sunday won't be the same without you. Coffee and refreshments will be provided at rehearsals. Contact: Minister of Music Ariel Merivil (amerivil@wilshirebc.org)

Save the date for Winds concert

Wilshire Winds will present a concert of sacred and secular music on Sunday, June 8, at 6:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary. Shana Gaines directs the volunteer group of brass, woodwind and percussion players.

Lavonda Mann

Hometown: Pulaski, Tennessee

Present City: Harlingen/Dallas

Education: A.S., Samford; B.A., UT-Brownsville; Clinical Pastoral Education Residency, Valley Baptist Health System; Master of Divinity, Logsdon Seminary.

Profession: CEO of Human Development/Spiritual Formation for the Mann Family and outreach; former chaplain in Clinical Pastoral Care at VBHS and Rio Grande Valley Hospices.

Tell us about your family.

David and I have been married over 41 years. Our stories mirrored, and our vocational callings to “foreign fields” were shared. We became engaged at Samford about four weeks after our first group date — to a Truth concert. My mission field quickly became our four children, born within five years in two states. As they grew, so did our areas of outreach. Our family now includes Carley (James), Evan (Kelly), Elliott (Elle) and Drew (Rhi). Our grandchildren — Ruby, Francis, Claire, Kirk, Evlan and Kai — range from 3 to 19 years old. David and I also share my elder parents and extended family with my younger brother Noel (Rene), along with our nephew Timmy and niece Abby. Family is a wide, blessed circle for us.

How about your faith journey?

I cannot ever remember not knowing God. I was the one who asked my mother to teach me to pray — though I had never heard her pray aloud. One of my earliest theological memories is watching men in Sunday suits on TV sing “Jesus Loves Me.” At 3 years old, I asked my mother why they sang like Jesus only loved them. She wisely told me, “We’re all supposed to sing along.” Later, in rural Tennessee, I caught the school bus at dawn and was discipled in Christ’s ways by Lydia, the daughter of a Church of God minister.

She taught me about Bible study, prayer and listening to the Holy Spirit. I began reading the Bible and praying nightly. Two gifts shaped me early on: The Living New Testament for Children and The World Book Encyclopedia. I professed my faith at 8, though my parents insisted I wait to be baptized until I was “of age.” I was baptized at 15 in a Southern Baptist church and answered God’s call to full-time ministry at 16. I expected to be a foreign missionary — probably to Africa. Learning firsthand from Scripture before formal church involvement gave me a priceless foundation, later built upon through theological education.

What’s something interesting most people wouldn’t know about you?

As an underclassman, I was once required to conduct a critical analysis of the entire curriculum published by the Baptist Sunday School Board. A daunting but eye-opening experience!

WSM YOUTH CAMP

June 30–July 5 | wilshirebc.org/events/youth-camp-2025

"Youth camp is the BEST week of the year where you have opportunities to grow relationships with Christ as well as friends."

Parker Mosley, 12th grade

It's time to sign up for Wilshire Student Ministry's best week of the year. The group will again travel to Ferncliff Camp near Little Rock, Arkansas, which provides great lodging, meeting space and recreation — hiking, nature trails, a swimming pool, lake activities, disc golf, sand volleyball and more. Mix in great adult leaders and good friends and you have everything you need for a fun, meaningful week. We're excited to welcome back Jared Jagers as camp pastor. Jared is a former Wilshire pastoral resident and intern now serving on staff at the American International Church in London.

How much does it cost?

This year's cost of $500 covers meals, lodging, activities, transportation and a fantastic T-shirt.

How does lodging work?

Youth will stay in cabins assigned by grade.

How are we getting there?

As usual, we'll travel by bus. The trip takes about 6.5 hours.

Are scholarships available?

Yes. We never want money concerns to keep any youth from attending youth camp. For more information, please contact Darren (ddement@wilshirebc.org).

Are guests welcome?

Absolutely! Camp is a great way to introduce someone to WSM.

How do I sign up?

Register and pay online. Get started by scanning the QR code or visiting wilshirebc.org/events/youth-camp-2025.

Is there a deadline?

We'd love to have everyone signed up and paid in full by June 25. The earlier you sign up, the easier it is for us to plan an awesome week.
