Trinity Sunday

Preparing for worship

The Swedish theologian Krister Stendahl suggests that we should leave room in our religious understanding for “Holy Envy” in how we understand and engage with religious traditions different from our own. By this he means that it is proper to feel a sense of admiration when we recognize attractive characteristics in other traditions that emphasize a certain practice or theological meaning, or that they may do so with a distinctive beauty or sacramental depth that may not be a feature of our own tradition.

One of the aspects of Orthodox Christian worship I have always found moving is their belief that as we begin our communal worship, we are joining in with unending heavenly worship. For the Orthodox, worship is therefore a “Divine Liturgy” that mystically unites us in praise with the angels and saints before the throne of God. As the great saint of the Eastern church St. John Chrysostom declared, “Now the powers of heaven do serve invisibly with us.”

Because of this understanding of worship as both communal and cosmic, the start of an Orthodox service offers a sense of a mystical parting of the veil that divides heaven and earth, as the eternal and the here-and-now are mysteriously joined together in worship.

Today is Trinity Sunday, and in the spirit of Stendahl’s Holy Envy, we will start our worship with the ringing of bells and a cantor exclaiming “Glory to Thee, O Holy Trinity,” one of the acclamations used to initiate the Divine Liturgy. Nova will answer with an “Amen” and then follow with the response, “O Come Let Us Worship.”

As worship begins, may you get a sense that we too are entering into the great cosmic drama of worship. May this remind us that worship is the work of the whole Church, including those who are beyond our apprehension, who are celebrating with us on behalf of all and for all.

Stanzas 1–3

+Call to Worship

Pam Haley

One: Let us worship the Triune God.

All: Let us worship the One who spoke in the beginning and created something out of nothing.

One: Let us worship the Triune God.

All: Let us worship the One who took on the clothing of humanity to set those who were oppressed free.

One: Let us worship the Triune God.

All: Let us worship the One whose Spirit rests continually upon us, calling us from sorrow-filled endings
to bright new beginnings.

God Our Father, We Adore Thee

BEECHER

Stanza 4

Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Three in One! we give Thee praise!
For the riches we inherit, heart and voice to Thee we raise!
We adore Thee! we adore Thee! Thee we bless through endless days!
We adore Thee! we adore Thee! Thee we bless through endless days!

Reading from the Hebrew Scriptures — Proverbs 8:1–4, 22–31

Chelsea Hopkins

Does not wisdom call and understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
“To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all who live.

“The LORD created me at the beginning of the LORD’s work,
 the first of LORD’s acts of long ago.
 Ages ago I was set up,
 at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
 When there were no depths I was brought forth,
 when there were no springs abounding with water.
 Before the mountains had been shaped,
 before the hills, I was brought forth,
 when God had not yet made earth and fields or the world’s first bits of soil.
 When God established the heavens, I was there;
 when God drew a circle on the face of the deep,
 when God made firm the skies above,
 when God established the fountains of the deep,
 when God assigned to the sea its limit,
 so that the waters might not transgress God’s command,
 when God marked out the foundations of the earth,
 then I was beside God, like a master worker,
 and I was daily God’s delight,
 playing before God always,
 playing in God’s inhabited world
 and delighting in the human race.”

+Gospel Reading — John 16:12–15

Christopher Granberry

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

For the Word of God in Scripture,
 For the Word of God among us,
 And for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God!

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins,
As we forgive those who sin against us;
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

Youth Choir on tour

Wilshire's Youth Choir left yesterday for Chicago, where it will spend the week singing, serving and sightseeing. Keep the group of 47 singers, leaders and chaperones in your prayers.

The choir will sing for worship today at La Salle Street Church. Other sites for singing or serving include Roseland Christian Ministries, Chicago Eco House and an assisted living center. The Wilshire group will take in a Cubs game at Wrigley Field, enjoy pizza at Gino's East and visit the Field Museum, the Art Institute of Chicago, the John Hancock Center observation deck, Millennium Park, Grant Park and other attractions.

Instead of presenting an evening "home concert" upon their return, the choir will sing several selections in Wilshire's morning worship service on Sunday, June 22.

Congratulations to Michael and Molly Shepard on the birth of Caitlin June, June 10. Big sister is Olivia, grandparents are Ed and Linda Francis and aunt is Julie Francis.

PEP drive needs shoes, belts

Wilshire is conducting a Men's Clothing Drive for mission partner Prison Entrepreneurship Program. Gently worn professional or business apparel is welcome — especially shoes and belts. Bring items to the collection tables in James Gallery and the South Atrium through Sunday, June 22. PEP (pep.org) seeks to reduce recidivism and increase economic opportunity for incarcerated individuals through entrepreneurship training and re-entry services.

Wilshire seeking finance director

Wilshire is now accepting applications for the role of director of finance. This full-time role will be responsible for overseeing and optimizing the day-to-day operations of the finance area, including strategic planning, budgeting, financial reporting and ensuring compliance with industry standards and regulations. See the job description and application instructions at wilshirebc.org/employment.

Transportation help needed

What would you do if you could no longer drive and missed going to church on Sunday morning? A few of our senior adults are now in that situation. At least one lives west of Central Expressway, while others live in Garland and Lake Highlands. We need volunteers who would be willing to provide transportation to Wilshire one Sunday a month, if not more often. We also need volunteers who can be available during the week to provide transportation to medical visits for those who cannot drive themselves. If you are interested in being of service to your fellow church members, please contact Parish Nurse Linda Garner at lgarner@wilshirebc.org or 214-452-3151.

Happy campers

Children and preschoolers learned about trusting God at Wilshire's Vacation Bible School, Camp Fire-light, this week. Mornings included worship in McIver Chapel plus rotations through music, missions, art, Bible story and recreation. The fifth grade class visited and served at the Wilkinson Center, Gateway of Grace, HHM Health, White Rock Center of Hope and Austin Street Center.

Deacon retreat was day for dreaming

ON SATURDAY, MAY 17, Wilshire's active deacons held their annual retreat in Community Hall, where they were led by Pathways to Ministry alum Chris Aho.

A writer, preacher, independent consultant and coach based in Durham, North Carolina, Chris works with individuals, congregations and organizations to navigate faithful change through intentional design and spiritual imagination. He previously served as director of the Thriving Congregations Initiative of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship.

At the retreat, Chris led the deacons through an exercise called the Creative Hustle. In several small groups we identified challenges or areas of growth for Wilshire. We then identified the ripple effects of those challenges and explored possible next steps, improvements and unanticipated ripple effects of those steps.

It was a wonderful day of brainstorming, exploration, thinking, discussion and dreaming. We are grateful to Chris for leading us and were moved by everyone's ideas and their passion for those ideas and for Wilshire.

Someone to talk with.

If you're facing a life challenge and would like a friend to walk alongside you for a season of healing, perhaps you would benefit from a Stephen Minister. This ministry pairs trained lay people with those in need of confidential companionship during times of crisis. To reach out, email stephenministry@wilshirebc.org or call 214-452-3176.

Debby Burton

Name: Debby Burton

Hometown: My dad was in the service, and we moved around until he retired. We settled in Arlington, where I graduated high school.

Present City: Plano

Profession: Administrative assistant

Tell us about your family.

I met David Burton at my home church in Arlington in 1981. We married and moved to Garland in 1982. Our two adult sons, Andrew (Doo) and Josh, grew up at Wilshire.

How about your work or volunteer life?

I began working at First Baptist Church in Garland in 1982. In 1997 I came to Wilshire as education and missions assistant. I became George Mason's assistant in 1999 (don't ya know). In 2024 I went part-time and became the administrative assistant for Pathways to Ministry.

Any favorite hobbies?

Reading, baseball, jigsaw puzzles and games. Last year David and I moved to a 55+ community, and we're both active there, playing pickleball and participating in social and exercise activities. I am the game coordinator for the Friday and Sunday afternoon game times.

What are your favorite places to travel?

My favorite trip so far is an Alaskan cruise. God knew what he was up to when he made Alaska! On my bucket list were to travel by train and to visit the Grand Canyon. We checked both of those off in 2023. Now, how do I get to Hawaii?

Where are you engaged at Wilshire?

I attend Foundations of Faith Class and lead the WOW Tuesday Evening Book Club.

What has surprised you most about Wilshire?

I had an amazing mentor at First Baptist Garland who taught me about church work. I brought those skills to Wilshire. Evidently my skills and love for the work has served me well. Wilshire has kept me on staff for 28 years!

Tell us about your faith journey.

I was baptized by Daniel Vestal at age 12 and was active in church from then on. I grew up Southern Baptist, married a Southern Baptist preacher's kid and work in a Baptist church. All I know is church. Along the way I found my spiritual gift: prayer. I love praying for people, and at the same time my own faith is strengthened. Call on me if you need a prayer warrior.

What is something interesting most people would not know about you?

My dad was a security guard at Rangers Stadium in the '70s. I would go with him to watch batting practice and stay late to wave goodbye to the players. I still have a special place in my heart for baseball and the Rangers.

What adjectives best describe you?

Dedicated and caring. As an Enneagram 2, I love everyone else but myself. Ironically, my star word this year is "self-love." Right now, I love myself enough to share this bio!

WSM YOUTH CAMP

June 30–July 5 | wilshirebc.org/events/youth-camp-2025

"Youth camp is the BEST week of the year where you have opportunities to grow relationships with Christ as well as friends."

Parker Mosley, 12th grade

It's time to sign up for Wilshire Student Ministry's best week of the year. The group will again travel to Ferncliff Camp near Little Rock, Arkansas, which provides great lodging, meeting space and recreation — hiking, nature trails, a swimming pool, lake activities, disc golf, sand volleyball and more. Mix in great adult leaders and good friends and you have everything you need for a fun, meaningful week. We're excited to welcome back Jared Jagers as camp pastor. Jared is a former Wilshire pastoral resident and intern now serving on staff at the American International Church in London.

How much does it cost?

This year's cost of $500 covers meals, lodging, activities, transportation and a fantastic T-shirt.

How does lodging work?

Youth will stay in cabins assigned by grade.

How are we getting there?

As usual, we'll travel by bus. The trip takes about 6.5 hours.

Are scholarships available?

Yes. We never want money concerns to keep any youth from attending youth camp. For more information, please contact Darren (ddement@wilshirebc.org).

Are guests welcome?

Absolutely! Camp is a great way to introduce someone to WSM.

How do I sign up?

Register and pay online. Get started by scanning the QR code or visiting wilshirebc.org/events/youth-camp-2025.

Is there a deadline?

We'd love to have everyone signed up and paid in full by June 25. The earlier you sign up, the easier it is for us to plan an awesome week.
