Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Preparing for worship

We gather this morning in a world marked by division, fear and uncertainty. Headlines and social media tell of neighbors treated as strangers, voices silenced and power wielded without mercy. In such times, worship becomes an act of resistance and hope as we come carrying our sorrowful hearts, unsure of what faithfulness looks like in these days.

Cole Arthur Riley writes, “Lament is not weakness. It is how we love while we are in pain.” Today, our lament is also an act of love — for our immigrant neighbors, for our silenced brothers and sisters, for our divided nation. In worship, we refuse to numb ourselves to sorrow. Instead we bring it honestly before God, trusting that divine mercy is greater than the arrogance of those who rise up against the vulnerable.

Even in lament, we are reminded that God’s kingdom is often hidden in ordinary things: a seed planted, bread rising, treasure discovered by accident. God’s reign is not dependent on political clout or cultural dominance, but on the quiet and steady work of love and persistent faithfulness. The psalmist’s cry, “Incline your ear, O LORD, ... for I am poor and needy,” assures us that God bends low to hear the voices of the vulnerable and is attentive to our fragile selves. Our prayers need not be polished; they need only to be honest.

And yet Psalm 86 does not leave us in lament alone. It proclaims: “You, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.” This steadfast love is the soil in which God’s kingdom grows — like yeast hidden in dough or a seed in the earth, imperceptible at first but unstoppable in its growth.

Grace carries us, as the anthem will remind us, through “many dangers, toils and snares.” And in worship, we practice the world as God intends: a community where the poor are remembered, the stranger is welcomed and mercy has the last word.

So bring your worries, your weariness and your longing for justice. Here, in this gathered community, we open ourselves to the presence of the God who listens, who loves without end and whose kingdom is already at work among us.

+Call to Worship

Grant Stewart

One: God of peace and love, bring to us a new awareness

All: Of your kingdom at work in the world.

One: Grant that we may see and understand

All: The small and unassuming things,

One: Which take patience and attention to notice:

All: A seed,

One: Yeast in bread,

All: Treasure buried in a field,

One: A net cast into water,

All: A baby lying in a manger.

One: We acknowledge that we mostly miss the signs when they are not flashy or earth-shaking,

All: But that your kingdom is all around us.

+All congregants are invited to stand in body or spirit.
Hearing devices are available in the Narthex and South Atrium.

One: We acknowledge that Christ came to exhibit neither wealth nor political power,

All: But self-sacrificing love, which the world had never seen and mostly overlooks.

One: We acknowledge that the progress of the good work we do may be imperceptible to us,

All: And that our success is in our obedience to you.

One: We welcome your kingdom, in the world and in our hearts.

All: We seek your kingdom, certain that we will find it.

One: We anticipate your kingdom,

All: Working toward peace,

One: Providing for the poor,

All: Healing the sick,

One: Loving our enemies.

All: We trust in your love to provide for us in our seeking.

One: Whether your spirit comes to us as a wind or a whisper,

All: May we know your presence and be useful to your kingdom work.

HYMN TO JOY

Mortals, join the happy chorus which the morning stars began.
Love divine is reigning o'er us, joining all in heaven's plan.
Ever singing, march we onward, victors in the midst of strife.
Joyful music leads us sunward in the triumph song of life.

Psalm Reading — Psalm 86

Maggie Morey and Charlie Fuller

One: Incline your ear, O LORD, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.
Preserve my life, for I am devoted to you;
save your servant who trusts in you.
You are my God; be gracious to me, O Lord,
for to you do I cry all day long.

All: Gladden the soul of your servant,
for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all who call on you.

One: Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer;
listen to my cry of supplication.
In the day of my trouble I call on you,
for you will answer me.

Choir: *There is none like you among the gods, O Lord,
nor are there any works like yours.
All the nations you have made shall come and bow down before you, O Lord,
and shall glorify your name.*

One: For you are great and do wondrous things;
you alone are God.
Teach me your way, O LORD,
that I may walk in your truth;
give me an undivided heart to revere your name.

All: I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever.
For great is your steadfast love toward me;
you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

One: O God, the insolent rise up against me;
a band of ruffians seeks my life,
and they do not set you before them.
But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.

All: Turn to me and be gracious to me;
give your strength to your servant;
save the child of your maidservant.
Show me a sign of your favor,
so that those who hate me may see it and be put to shame,
because you, LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

A Quiet Prayer
Bill Jernberg, organ

August Maekelberghe

Jesus told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like someone who planted good seed in his field. While people were sleeping, an enemy came and planted weeds among the wheat and went away. When the stalks sprouted and bore grain, then the weeds also appeared. The servants of the landowner came and said to him, ‘Master, didn’t you plant good seed in your field? Then how is it that it has weeds?’ ‘An enemy has done this,’ he answered. The servants said to him, ‘Do you want us to go and gather them?’ But the landowner said, ‘No, because if you gather the weeds, you’ll pull up the wheat along with them. Let both grow side by side until the harvest. And at harvest time I’ll say to the harvesters, “First gather the weeds and tie them together in bundles to be burned. But bring the wheat into my barn.”’”

For the Word of God in Scripture,
For the Word of God among us,
And for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God!

Grace
Sanctuary Choir

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound;
That saved a wretch, a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now am found;
I once was lost, but now I see.

’Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And that same grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour when I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already safely come;
This grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And surely grace will lead me home, I shall go home.

When we’ve been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the glorious sun,
We’ve no less days to sing God’s praise
Than since the day we first begun,
Than since the day we first begun.

Silence

We pause in silence to reflect and to be attentive to the Spirit of God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins,
As we forgive those who sin against us;
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

Deacon nominations sought

THE DEACON NOMINATING COMMITTEE asks Wilshire members to submit names of persons to be considered for deacon service.

Nominees should be individuals who have modeled consistent, faithful service and leadership and who have been Wilshire members at least one year. You may also nominate deacons in reserve to rotate into active service. Nominate as many individuals as you wish. New deacons will be ordained and start their three-year terms after being approved at Wilshire's Annual Church Conference in January. The Deacon Nominating Committee appreciates your prayerful consideration.

What is a deacon, anyway?

The role of deacons originates from Acts 6, where the early church appointed leaders to serve the community's growing needs, allowing the apostles to focus on prayer and teaching. These deacons were chosen for their spiritual maturity and wisdom.

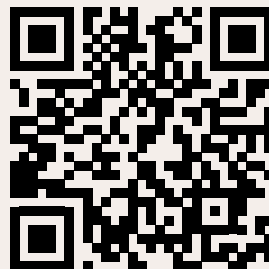

In Baptist tradition, deacons are seen as servant leaders who support the congregation, care for the congregation and promote unity. At Wilshire, deacons are expected to bring their unique spiritual gifts and life experiences to serve the church faithfully.

Deacons at Wilshire are called to demonstrate commitment to Christ and the church, show spiritual maturity and leadership and live with balance, integrity and humility.

Their responsibilities include tithing, attending monthly meetings, serving communion (including to the homebound), participating in hospitality and worship care, and supporting church leadership.

Ultimately, the deacon ministry at Wilshire is rooted in service, not status, emphasizing Christ-like leadership through prayer, presence and faithfulness.

Please submit nominations by Friday, Sept. 26

Online: Scan the QR code or visit wilshirebc.org/deacon-nominations. At the link you will find for reference lists of active deacons, inactive deacons and those who have chosen honorary emeritus status.

Paper Form: Pick up a nomination form in the church office, fill it out and return it to the attention of Chelsea Hopkins.

Deadline: Friday, Sept. 26.

Note: If you have been ordained as a deacon in another church and have not served at Wilshire, please let Chelsea Hopkins know (chopkins@wilshirebc.org).
