The Sous Chef will assist the Food Service Director in preparing high-quality meals for church events, weekday programs, and community gatherings. This position plays a vital role in fostering hospitality and fellowship through food service.

Key Responsibilities

- Support the Food Service Director in planning, preparing, and presenting meals for church events, weekly programs, and special functions.
- Supervise kitchen operations in the Food Service Director's absence, ensuring food quality, safety, and sanitation standards are maintained.
- Assist with menu development, inventory management, and food ordering.
- Maintain a clean and organized kitchen environment, following all food handling and safety regulations.
- Collaborate with staff and volunteers to provide a welcoming, efficient, and positive dining experience.

Qualifications

- Previous experience as a Sous Chef, line cook, or similar role in food service preferred.
- Knowledge of commercial kitchen operations
- ServSafe Manager certification
- Strong teamwork and communication skills.
- Bilingual English/Spanish skills are a plus.
- A heart for service and alignment with the mission and values of Wilshire Baptist Church.

Physical Requirements

- Must be able to stand for extended periods.
- Ability to push, pull, and lift moderate weights (up to approximately 40 lbs).
- Comfortable working in a fast-paced kitchen environment.

Schedule & Compensation

- Full-time position with frequent evenings and weekends.
- Hourly wage at $22 with benefits.

If you are passionate about food, hospitality, and serving others through community and faith, we invite you to apply.
