“O LIGHT, COME DOWN TO EARTH”

Celebration of the Green

December 7, 2025 | 6:30 p.m.

Chiming of the Hour

We gather in community tonight to worship God. To help center our focus in worship, please silence all electronic devices.

Welcome

O LIGHT, CREATE AND BECOME FLESH

Scripture Collage — Genesis 1 and John 1

Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light

Sanctuary Choir

J. S. Bach

Break forth, O beauteous heavenly light, and usher in the morning;
Ye shepherds, shrink not with affright, but hear the angel's warning.
This Child, now weak in infancy, our confidence and joy shall be,
The power of Satan breaking, our peace eternal making.

“A Blessing for Traveling in the Dark” — Jan Richardson

from Circle of Grace: A Book of Blessings for the Seasons

Go slow
if you can.
Slower.
More slowly still.
Friendly dark
or fearsome,
this is no place
to break your neck
by rushing,
by running,
by crashing into what you cannot see.

Hearing devices are available in the Narthex and South Atrium.

Then again,
it is true:
different darks
have different tasks,
and if you
have arrived here unawares,
if you have come in peril
or in pain,
this might be no place
you should dawdle.

I do not know what these shadows
ask of you,
what they might hold
that means you good or ill.
It is not for me
to reckon
whether you should linger
or you should leave.

But this is what
I can ask for you:

That in the darkness
there be a blessing.
That in the shadows
there be a welcome.
That in the night
you be encompassed
by the Love that knows your name.

Hymn 103

O Come, All Ye Faithful
Please rise in body or spirit and sing.

ADESTE FIDELES

“God’s Grandeur” — Gerard Manley Hopkins

The world is charged with the grandeur of God.
It will flame out, like shining from shook foil;
It gathers to a greatness, like the ooze of oil
Crushed. Why do men then now notreck his rod?
Generations have trod, have trod, have trod;
And all is seared with trade; bleared, smeared with toil;
And wears man’s smudge and shares man’s smell: the soil
Is bare now, nor can foot feel, being shod.

And for all this, nature is never spent;
There lives the dearest freshness deep down things;
And though the last lights off the black West went
Oh, morning, at the brown brink eastward, springs —
Because the Holy Ghost over the bent
World broods with warm breast and with ah! bright wings.

Hymn 125

Angels We Have Heard on High
Please rise in body or spirit and sing.

Rise Up, Shepherd, and Follow

Children’s Choir

Terry D. Taylor

There’s a star in the east on Christmas morn.
Rise up, shepherd, and follow.
It will lead to the place where the Savior’s born.
Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

Rise up! Rise up! Rise up, shepherd, and follow.
Follow the star to Bethlehem.
Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

If you take good heed to the angel’s words;
Rise up, shepherd, and follow;
You’ll forget your flocks; you’ll forget your herds;
Rise up, shepherd, and follow.

Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
Go tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born.

O LIGHT, BREAK THROUGH OUR DARKNESS

Scripture Collage — Isaiah 9 and Luke 2

O Magnum Mysterium

Morten Lauridsen/arr. Reynolds

Wilshire Winds

O great mystery, and wonderful sacrament, that animals should see the newborn Lord, lying in a manger!
O blessed virgin, whose womb was worthy to bear
the Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia!

Hymn 105

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming

ES IST EIN ROS'

"A Christmas Carol" — Christina Rossetti

In the bleak mid-winter
Frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron,
Water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
Snow on snow,
In the bleak mid-winter
Long ago.

Our God, Heaven cannot hold Him
Nor earth sustain;
Heaven and earth shall flee away
When He comes to reign:
In the bleak midwinter
A stable-place sufficed
The Lord God Almighty
Jesus Christ.

Enough for Him, whom cherubim
Worship night and day,
A breastful of milk
And a mangerful of hay;
Enough for Him, whom angels
Fall down before,
The ox and ass and camel
Which adore.

Angels and archangels
May have gathered there,
Cherubim and seraphim
Thronged the air;
But only His mother
In her maiden bliss
Worshipped the Beloved
With a kiss.

What can I give Him,
Poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd
I would bring a lamb,
If I were a Wise Man
I would do my part,—
Yet what I can I give Him,
Give my heart.

Lullay my liking, my dear Son, my sweeting
Lullay my dear heart, mine own dear darling

O Christ, Redeemer of us all
The Father's light, and splendor bright

Lullay my liking, my dear Son, my sweeting
Light of thine own heart, in my arms sleeping

In the stillness Christ is born,
Light has come, and darkness flies
Glory wakes the sleeping skies

Lullay my liking, my dear Son, my sweeting
Lullay my dear heart, your brightness greeting

Christ our dawn, our hope, our flame
All the earth shall bless his name
In the stillness, light is born
Morning breaks where night was worn

Lullay my liking, my dear Son, my sweeting
Light of all heaven, to earth, descending

Angels bright they sang that night
And saien to that child,
“Blessed be thou, and so be she that is so meek and mild”

Lullay my liking, my dear Son, my sweeting
Lullay my dear heart, here in straw sleeping

Every age adoring fall: The Word of God in flesh arrayed
The promised light to man displayed

Lullay my liking, my dear Son, my sweeting
Lullay my dear heart, mine own dear darling

Carillon Ringers

“The Coming” — R. S. Thomas

And God held in his hand
A small globe. Look he said.
The son looked. Far off,
As through water, he saw
A scorched land of fierce
Colour. The light burned
There; crusted buildings
Cast their shadows: a bright
Serpent, a river
Uncoiled itself, radiant
With slime.

On a bare
Hill a bare tree saddened
The sky. Many people
Held out their thin arms
To it, as though waiting
For a vanished April
To return to its crossed
Boughs. The son watched
Them. Let me go there, he said.

Hymn 132

It Came Upon the Midnight Clear

CAROL

O LIGHT, LEAD US HOME

“Lead, Kindly Light” — Blessed John Henry Newman

Lead, Kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on;
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on.
Keep Thou my feet;
I do not ask to see the distant scene;
one step enough for me.
I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on.
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears, pride ruled my will;
remember not past years.

So long Thy power hath blessed me, sure it still
Will lead me on.
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

Keep Your Lamps

André Thomas

Sanctuary Choir

Keep your lamps trimmed and burning, the time is drawing nigh.
Children, don't get weary 'til your work is done.
Christian, journey soon be over, the time is drawing nigh.
Keep your lamps trimmed and burning, the time is drawing nigh.

Scripture Collage — Psalm 27 and Luke 1

Gloria, in excelsis deo! Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to God in the highest!
Christ is born on Christmas day!

Please rise in body or spirit and join in singing.

Hark! The herald angels sing, “Glory to the newborn King;
Peace on the earth, and mercy mild; God and sinner reconciled.”
Joyful, all ye nations, rise, join the triumph of the skies;
With angelic hosts proclaim, “Christ is born in Bethlehem!”
Hark! The herald the angels sing, “Glory to the newborn King.”

Hail the heaven born Prince of Peace! Hail the Sun of righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings, risen with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by, born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth, born to give them second birth.
Hark! The herald the angels sing, “Glory to the newborn King.”

Gloria, in excelsis deo! Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to God in the highest!
Christ is born on Christmas day!

Gloria

André Thomas

Sanctuary Choir
Katherine Pottkotter, soloist

Glory, glory to God, and on earth peace to all those of goodwill. Glory to God in the highest.
We praise thee, we bless thee, we adore thee, we glorify thee.
We give thanks to thee for thy great glory.

Lord God, King of Heaven, Father, Almighty One.
Glory be to Jesus Christ, Lamb of God, the Father’s only Son,
O thou who takes away all the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Receive our prayers.

Thou who sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty in heaven, have mercy on us!

For only thou art holy, only thou art the Lord.
For only thou art holy, only thou art most high.
In the name of the Father, in the name of the Son,
In the name of the Holy Ghost, in the glory of the Father, amen. Amen!

Climb to the Top of the Highest Mountain

Combined Children, Youth and Sanctuary Choirs

Carolyn Jennings

Climb to the top of the highest mountain,
Joyous tidings proclaim to the world,
Lift up your voice, Shout the good news:
Behold, your Lord comes to you.

He will feed his flock like a shepherd,
He will carry the lambs in his arms,
He will ever keep them safe from harm.
Behold, your Lord comes to you.

He who made the stars in the heaven,
He who fashioned the earth and the sea.
From time eternal, he was God, the Alpha and Omega, He.
Behold your Lord!

He will come in power and glory,
He will rule with mercy and truth,
Hope of the nations, light of all the world.

He will love the little children,
He will hold them in his arms.
Love and trust him as a child,
Behold, your Lord comes to you.

ADVENT 2025 WILSHIRE BAPTIST CHURCH

Christmas Pageant

Wednesday, Dec. 10 | 6 p.m.
Sanctuary | Kindergarten, Pre-K and 3-Year-Old choirs will be in costume as they sing and act out the Nativity.

Songwriter Vespers: Holiday Edition

Sunday, Dec. 14 | 4:30 p.m.
Choral Hall | Associate Pastor Darren DeMent and other musicians will explore the full range of holiday emotions through songs by Joni Mitchell, Tom Waits, Lyle Lovett and others. Part worship service and part coffeehouse concert, this won't be your typical church Christmas program.

Christmas Eve

Wednesday, Dec. 24

- 4 p.m. | Our family service is suitable for all ages.
- 11 p.m. | Our liturgical service includes celebration of the Lord's Supper.

Sunday School series

Darren DeMent and Katie Murray are leading a Sunday School series on the four Sundays of Advent at 9:45 a.m. in McIver Chapel. In the class, the Advent virtues of hope, peace, joy and love will be explored using the poetry of Wendell Berry.

Advent art show

Light is the common theme of the 16 works by artist Sandra Bowden on display through Jan. 4 in the South Lobby. Each piece in Illuminations is embellished with gold leafing, an adornment characteristic of many medieval texts. Visit whenever the building is open.

Giving Tree

Select a tag from the Giving Tree in James Gallery and fulfill a Christmas wish for a child or adult served by our Rental and Utility Assistance Program or a local mission partner. Scan your tag's QR code and we'll send you a due-date reminder.

■ We also have a Virtual Giving Tree. Find the link at wilshirebc.org/giving-tree.

Tree of Hope and Remembrance

Help decorate our Tree of Hope and Remembrance in the South Lobby by writing the name of a loved one as a memorial or your name as a survivor of cancer or another disease. Ornaments and markers are provided at the tree.

Wilshire Library Online Book Fair

 Get some of your Christmas shopping done and help the Wilshire Library at the same time by shopping the Library's Online Book Fair from Dec. 1 to 16. The Library will receive 25% of all sales. More than 212,000 titles are available, from baby books to young adult. Scan QR code or visit wilshirebc.org/events/book-fair to start browsing.

Interactive Bethlehem Experience

Friday, Dec. 19
6:30 – 8:30 p.m.
Free Admission

Bring the whole family and invite friends and neighbors for One Starry Night, our free interactive Bethlehem Experience, on Friday, Dec. 19, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Wilshire's Community Hall will be transformed into the village of Bethlehem, with shops, tradespeople, food and storytelling about the whispered birth of a special baby. This event is especially suited for families with children, but will be fun for all ages.
