Greeting and Call to Worship

Jordann McMahan

All are invited to read the bold text aloud.

We gather today in the darkened sanctuary of God's creation, anticipating flickers of the light of resurrection life. We set our faces toward the Son and celebrate together:

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Hymn

Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

HYMN TO JOY

Joyful, joyful, we adore thee, God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before thee, opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day!

All thy works with joy surround thee, earth and heaven reflect thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around thee, center of unbroken praise.
Field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea,
Singing bird and flowing fountain call us to rejoice in thee.

Thou art giving and forgiving, ever blessing, ever blest,
Wellspring of the joy of living, ocean-depth of happy rest!
Thou our God and Christ our Brother — all who live in love are thine;
Teach us how to love each other, lift us to the joy divine.

Gospel Reading — John 20:1-10

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus's head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed, for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

Muy temprano, el primer día de la semana, mientras aún estaba oscuro, María Magdalena fue al sepulcro y vio que la piedra había sido quitada del sepulcro. Entonces corrió y fue a ver a Simón Pedro y al otro discípulo, aquel a quien Jesús amaba, y les dijo: «Se han llevado al Señor del sepulcro, y no sabemos dónde lo han puesto». Entonces Pedro y el otro discípulo salieron y se dirigieron hacia el sepulcro. Los dos corrían juntos, pero el otro discípulo corrió más rápido que Pedro y llegó primero al sepulcro. Se inclinó para mirar adentro y vio las vendas de lino allí puestas, pero no entró. Luego llegó Simón Pedro, siguiéndolo, y entró en el sepulcro. Vio las vendas de lino allí puestas, y el lienzo que había estado sobre la cabeza de Jesús, no puesto junto con las vendas de lino, sino enrollado en un lugar aparte. Entonces el otro discípulo, el que había llegado primero al sepulcro, entró también; y vio y creyó, pues todavía no habían entendido la Escritura: que él debía resucitar de entre los muertos. Entonces los discípulos regresaron a sus casas.

Gospel Reading — John 20:11-18

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb, and she saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, “Do not touch me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord,” and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Pero María estaba afuera del sepulcro, llorando. Mientras lloraba, se inclinó para mirar dentro del sepulcro, y vio a dos ángeles vestidos de blanco, sentados donde había estado el cuerpo de Jesús: uno a la cabecera y el otro a los pies. Ellos le dijeron: «Mujer, ¿por qué lloras?». Ella les respondió: «Se han llevado a mi Señor, y no sé dónde lo han puesto». Al decir esto, se dio vuelta y vio a Jesús de pie allí, pero no sabía que era Jesús. Jesús le dijo: «Mujer, ¿por qué lloras?

¿A quién buscas?». Suponiendo que era el jardinero, ella le dijo: «Señor, si tú te lo has llevado, dime dónde lo has puesto, y yo me lo llevaré». Jesús le dijo: «¡María!». Ella se volvió y le dijo en hebreo: «¡Rabbuni!» (que significa Maestro). Jesús le dijo: «No me toques, porque todavía no he subido al Padre. Pero ve a mis hermanos y diles: “Subo a mi Padre y Padre de ustedes, a mi Dios y Dios de ustedes”». María Magdalena fue y anunció a los discípulos: «¡He visto al Señor!», y les contó que él le había dicho estas cosas.

For the Word of God in Scripture,
For the Word of God among us,
And for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.
