BAPTIST CHURCH

All Saints Sunday

Preparing for worship

Here's your bit of church history for the day.

On Nov. 1 in 731 A.D., Pope Gregory III dedicated a small chapel within St. Peter's Basilica in Rome to "all the saints" and instituted All Saints Day as an annual feast day for the church in Rome. A hundred years later, Pope Gregory IV expanded the commemoration of All Saints Day as a feast day for the entire church.

All Saints is a clever catch-all observance that ensures all the saints are honored. As some of you may know, the Catholic Church observes a myriad of feast days for saints throughout the liturgical year. Every canonized saint has a feast day, but the truth is that not every saint is canonized.

While we can think of canonized saints as the uber do-gooders, the truth according to Scripture is that every baptized believer — everyone who confesses Christ as Savior — is a saint. This means All Saints Day is a way to collectively honor and remember all the noncanonized saints — all the believers "who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed, thy name, O Jesus," as you'll soon hear in our moment of Prayer Through Music.

Today, our commemoration of All Saints Day includes reading the names and remembering the members of our community who passed from this life into glory this past year. It's a moment that invites us to remember and give thanks for the many saints who have inspired us, challenged us, encouraged us and breathed life into our own journeys of faith.

Beloved of God, who are the saints who have impacted your life? Whose blessing and legacy do you carry with you? Whose prophetic witness or faithful service inspires you?

Today calls us to remember the saints with gratitude and honor them with resolve. You see, All Saints is not just a day to remember the dead; it's also an invitation to acknowledge that we — those who are baptized and confess Christ — are living saints. We are the ones younger generations are looking to. We are the ones they will remember and hopefully honor as saints one day.

Beloved of God, how will you be remembered? How are you speaking life into the lives and faith journeys of others? As we worship together on this All Saints Day, let us remember the saints with grateful hearts and honor them with faithful action.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 5:1–12 Leigh Ann Brown

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. And he began to speak and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

In Memoriam Katie Murray and Ariel Merivil

We remember today those within the fellowship of the church who have died in the past year. With the reading of each name, a bell will toll. See listing of names on page 7.

Prayer Through Music For All the Saints Christopher Miner
Darren DeMent, guitar, vocals text: Walsham How Michael Sheaffer, piano, vocals
Molly Shepard, vocals
Max Tucker, fiddle; Tim Cruise, djembe

For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blessed.
Alleluia, Allelu ...

Thou wast their rock, their fortress and their might;
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light.
Alleluia, Allelu ...

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia, Allelu ...

But lo! There breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on his way,
Alleluia, Allelu ...

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
Alleluia, Alleluia!

Prayers of the People Bryce Shelton

Silence

We pause in silence to reflect and to be attentive to the Spirit of God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins,
As we forgive those who sin against us;
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

Offertory — The Gate of Heaven — Craig Courtney

Noémie Golubovic, cello

Lord of the cloud and fire, my heart is in your hand.
From the darkness lift me to the light.
Your will my soul command.

Lord of the cloud and fire, lead me to worlds unknown.
Light Eternal, you alone can change the darkness into dawn.

From the darkness to the light, led by the Lord of cloud and fire, at heaven's gate I stand.
From the darkness to the light, led by the Lord of cloud and fire,
By faith I stand at heaven's gate, the house of God.

Rise, shine, give God glory.

Lord of the cloud and fire, I bow before your throne.
By faith at heaven's gate I stand, and find it home, and find it home.

+Epistle Reading — 1 John 3:1–3 — Katie Murray

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know God. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when God is revealed, we will be like God, for we will see God as God is. And all who have this hope in God purify themselves, just as God is pure.

For the Word of God in Scripture,
For the Word of God among us,
And for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God!
